

Take a Walk in My Shoes

Sometimes, it's easier to understand others when we know more about them. In the shoe, write or draw some things that you want others to know about you.

FAMILY CONNECTION!

Ask your student what they wish others knew about them and then share something that would help others understand you better.

Scan here to see today's lesson!

