Fall Family Storytime Adventure

Our Storytime Checklist

- [ ]  Grab your pajamas.
  Get cozy and comfortable!
- [ ]  Choose a cozy spot.
  Couch, blanket nest, or outside on a crisp fall day.
- [ ]  Pick a story.
  Choose a Labyrinth Adventures book or a favorite fall story.
- [ ]  Read together.
  Slow down and enjoy the story.
- [ ]  Talk about one feeling.
  What was the character feeling? Have you ever felt that way?
- [ ]  Do one story-inspired activity.
  See ideas on the right!

Conversation Starters

How did the character feel?

What would you do?

What could help?

Did anything in this story remind you of something that happened to you?

Story-Inspired Activity Ideas

Draw a favorite character.

Act out a scene from the story.

Take a story walk and look for something that reminds you of the book.

Make a simple snack inspired by the story.

Build the setting with blocks or toys.

Tell what you think might happen next.

Try a Labyrinth Adventures Story This Fall

Cleo the Brave
A gentle way to talk about bravery and trying new things.

Oliver's Waiting Game
A story about what we can do when waiting feels hard.

Tia Catches a Rainbow
A reminder that we can focus on what's good, even on cloudy days.

Tree's Gratitude Garden
Explore gratitude in everyday moments.

Lily's Cloudy Feelings
A gentle way to talk about emotions that come and go.

